

See renewable energy in action this summer!

WET 130: Renewable Energy Applied Course

June 3-7, 2019

8:00 am-5:00 pm | 3 credit hour course

This course will cover:

- wind power, solar power, and hydro power
- the theory and application of residential, community and commercial renewable energy being produced or utilized

Field Trips

- Wind Farms (Caprock Wind Farm and Broadview Wind Farm)
- Earth Ships (Taos, NM) – 75 house village completely sustainable, no outside utilities
- KTAOS Radio Station (Taos, NM) - the most powerful radio station powered by solar energy
- Rio Grande River (near Santa Fe, NM) – travel the Rio Grande River with rafts and learn about fluid dynamics and hydro power

WET 250: Tower Safety and Training

June 10-12, 2019

8:00 am-5:00 pm | 1 credit hour course

Tower Climb

- Hands-on Training –
Climb the College's 1.5 MW wind turbine on campus

CLIMB HIGHER

Mesalands Community College
911 South Tenth Street
Tucumcari, NM 88401
(575) 461-4413, ext. 156
mesalands.edu/wind